

The North and the South

By Mr. Marcus

The settlers who came to Virginia and
Mass Bay

Began this American
Nation

The North
made its way,

With cities
and trade,

In the South it was rural plantation

The North wanted central control

The South wanted the states to rule

State Government

VS

Central Government

And the North
and the South
couldn't figure it out

At the convention the issue was mired

Constitutional Convention, Philadelphia (1787)

And for 74
years the expansion it
tears,

Another state,
another iron in the fire

Missouri

Texas

California

Kansas was bled, Harriet Beecher Stowe was read, and John Brown was a symbol to all

To abolitionists
a saint,

But in the South they were afraid,

While Dred
Scott settled nothing at all

THE Dred Scott Decision.

OPINION OF CHIEF-JUSTICE
ROGER B. TANEY,

Race of Mankind."
ORIGINALLY WRITTEN FOR THE NEW YORK DAY-BOOK.

THE GREAT WANT OF A BRIEF PAMPHLET, containing the famous decision of Chief-Justice Taney, in the celebrated Dred Scott Case, has induced the Publishers of the Day-Book to present this edition to the public. It contains a Historical Introduction by Dr. Van Evrie, author of "Negroes and Negro Slavery," and an Appendix by Dr. Cartwright, of New Orleans, in which the physical differences between the negro and the white races are forcibly presented. As a whole, this pamphlet gives the historical, legal, and physical aspects of the "Slavery" Question in a concise compass, and should be circulated by thousands before the next presidential election. All who desire to answer the arguments of the abolitionists should read it. In order to place it before the masses, and induce Democratic Clubs, Democratic Town Committees, and all interested in the cause, to order it for distribution, it has been put down at the fol-

ELECTION OF 1860

The vote in the south
Douglass split
And the North
voted Lincoln president

Lincoln's First Inaugural Address
March 4, 1861

And the North
and the South
couldn't figure it
out

Thought Lincoln
said, "We're not enemies but friends"

South Carolina secedes, then 10 more did leave

A northern army called up to defend

The South at Bull Run defended Richmond, inspired by Stonewall Jackson

So many laid low at the church of Shiloh, a reputation made for Sherman

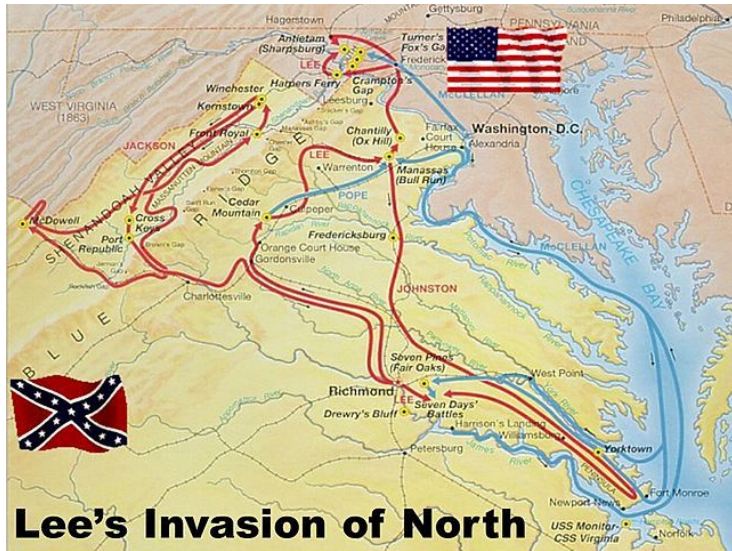

Chancellorsville went perfect for Lee

While Farragut easily took New Orleans

The North and the South couldn't figure it out, no decisive battles were waged

Lee invaded the North, Georgia felt "total war", over 700,000 young graves

At Gettysburg, PA, Lee made his “mistake”

His army would finally retreat

And Vicksburg
did cave, on the same day

A northern victory, now within reach

At Appomattox the ceasefire was signed,
But how do you heal such a divide?

Well the North
and the South
couldn't figure it
out,

John Wilkes Booth took away Honest
Abe

And the laws that were made

Were undermined by Johnson then Hayes

And we still fight this battle today...

June 17, 2015 racially motivated shooter kills nine people at a church in Charleston during Bible study

Yes we still fight this battle today...

August 11, 2017
White Nationalists
march in Charlottesville,
Virginia and clash
with counter protesters leading to violence and one dead

Yes we still fight this battle today...
