

The Seven Articles of the Constitution

By Mr. Marcus

Extra, Extra! Read all about the seven articles of the Constitution!

Article I (One)

Article One, is for Congressman,

And it established terms and rules for elections

And in Section 8, it enumerates,

Congress' powers and limitations

The United States Capitol Building

Extra, Extra! Read all about the seven articles of the Constitution!

Article II (Two)

Article Two, made sure the presidents knew,

The extent of their power, but it still grew,

As commander in chief, and when they make treaties,

But don't forget presidents can still be impeached

Extra, Extra! Read all about the seven articles of the Constitution!

Article III (Three)

Article Three, for the judiciary,

Created the Supreme Court and its jurisdiction,

It's a little bit mute, about judicial review,

But it lays out the standard to prove treason

Extra, Extra! Read all about the seven articles of the Constitution!

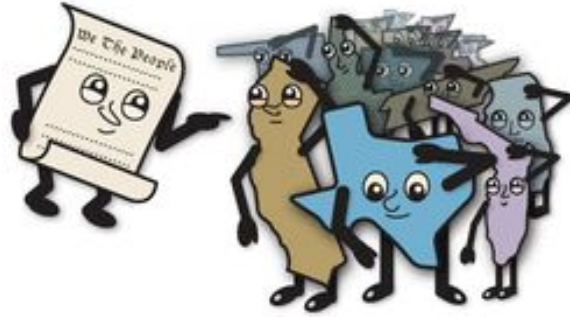

Articles IV (Four) and V (Five)

Article Four, says no state can ignore,

It's loyalty to republican government,

Article Five, keeps change alive,

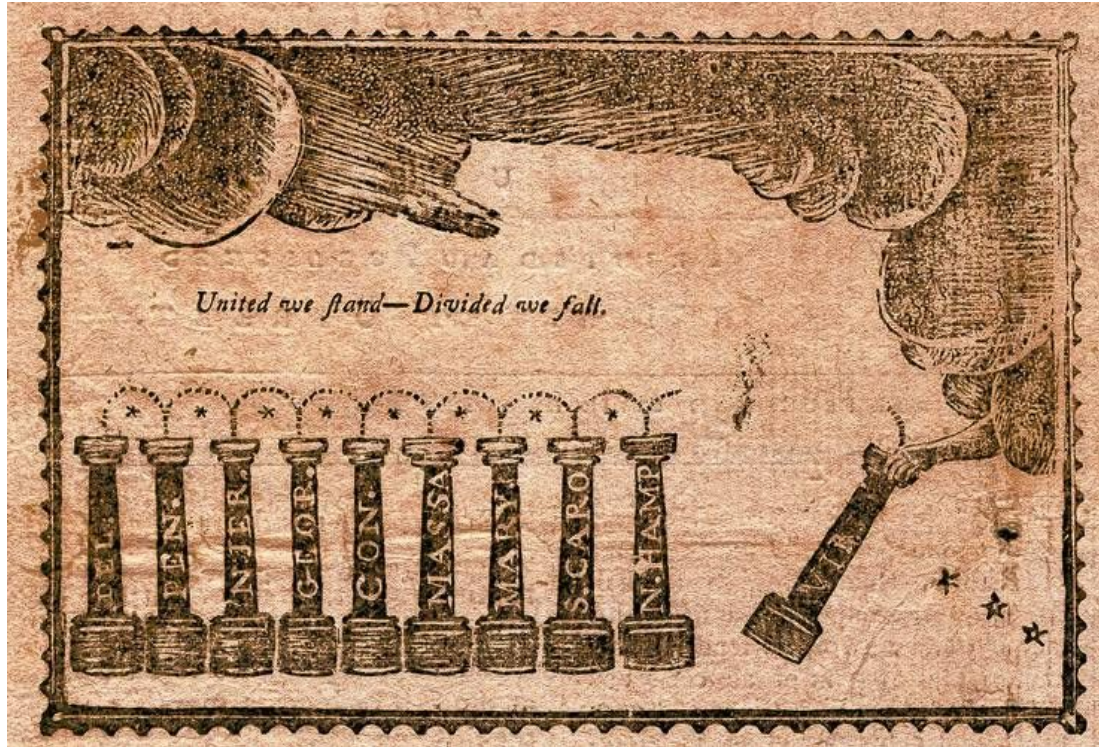

By laying out a process for amendment

Extra, Extra! Read all about the seven articles of the Constitution!

Article VI (Six) and VII (Seven)

Article Six, supremacy and debts,

Ensuring the power of the central government

Article Seven, ratification,

It's how it became the law of our nation

Extra, Extra! Read all about the seven articles of the Constitution!

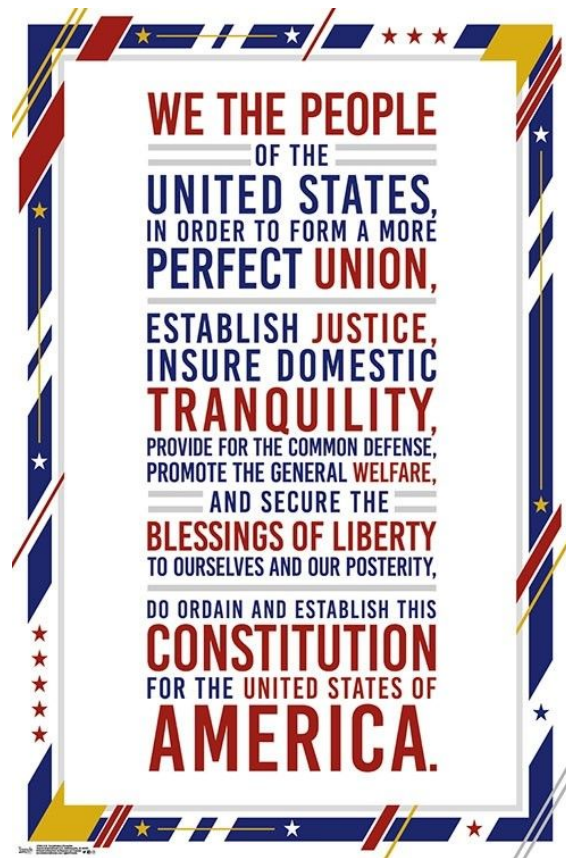

The Preamble

Now the Preamble, is not an article,

But a statement of goals for “We the People”

Justice and defence, domestic tranquility,

Welfare and liberty for our posterity

Time to “rap” it up

Preamble - A statement of goals

Article One - For congressman

Article Two - The presidents rules

Article Three - For the judiciary

Article Four - So states know the score

Article Five - The amendments guide

Article Six - Supremacy and debts

Article Seven - Ratification

Extra, Extra! Read all about the seven articles of the Constitution!

