

Name: _____

Block _____

“Win The White House” Worksheet for I-Civics

Answer the questions completely and to the best of your ability. Each question is worth 4 points for a sum total of 40 points.

1. What political party did you choose?

2. What do you have to make it through first before you actually running for President?

3. What 5 issues did you choose? Why? (Choose one issue and write the quote you click that is attached to the one issue you chose)

4. What states vote early in this initial phase of running for the Presidential seat?

5. What is an issue your opponent supports?

Name: _____

Block _____

“Win The White House” Worksheet for I-Civics

6. How many weeks do you have in order to win the race for Presidency?

7. What states did you try to win? Why?

8. Did you win enough electoral votes to become President? What was the final tally of votes between you and your opponent?

9. After playing this game please describe to me what the Electoral College is. You may have to use your book (use the index in the back) to help you answer this question.

10. How many Electoral votes are there total and how many does a candidate need to win in order to become President? (Use the index in the back of the book if you need to)